Tips For Back-to-School Shoe Shopping

As summer winds down and the new school year approaches, many parents are busy checking supplies off their shopping lists. While backpacks, notebooks, and lunch boxes often get the most attention, one purchase can have a lasting impact on your child's health: a properly fitting pair of shoes.

How Do I Know If I Should See a Podiatrist?

It's tempting to ignore foot pain and hope it goes away on its own. After all, many people assume sore feet are just part of a busy lifestyle. But ongoing pain, swelling, or changes in your feet aren't something you should live with.

YOUR AUGUST CALENDAR HIGHLIGHTS

August 1 — The first US Census is completed (1790): There were four million people in the US in 1790. Today's population is approximately 349 million.

August 12 — Annual Perseid Meteor Shower – Peak Night: During this meteor shower, the "shooting stars" you see are caused by tiny grains of space dust—often no larger than a grain of sand!

August 12 — Henry Ford built the first Model T. (1908): The original Ford Model T lacked a speedometer, and it wasn't strictly black—early releases were offered in red, green, and blue.

August 15-17 — Woodstock Music Festival (1969): Woodstock drew over 400,000 attendees to a dairy farm in Bethel, New York.

August 26 — Women's Equality Day: U.S. Congress passes the 19th Amendment to the Constitution (1920), granting women the right to vote.

August 27 — International Lottery Day: Americans spend over $100 billion annually on lottery tickets, reaching a historic peak of $109.38 billion recently.
